Everyday Hero

Janette was born in Oklahoma, but spent most of her life in Wyoming. She moved to Wheatland in 1994. In 1995, Janette started working at the nursing home as a Housekeeper. In 2001 she became a Certified Nurse Assistant. Janette has two children, a son, a daughter and eleven grandchildren. She enjoys reading and traveling to see family and friends in South Dakota and Colorado.

Janette values the lessons she learns from the residents. The smiles on the residents' faces when she does the littlest things for them makes her day worth while.
